

International Youth Math Challenge

Participation Certificate

presented to

Ummay Maimona Chaman

Bangladesh

for a successful participation in the qualification round of 2021. The International Youth Math Challenge is an independent international mathematics competition for high school and university students with the aim to encourage young students to engage in a variety of mathematical areas.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "F. Schneider".

Fabian Schneider, International Coordinator

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Rami Aly".

Rami Aly, Public Relations Manager